SOME INFORMATION FOR YOU

---

Date of Convention—July 31st and August 1st, 1926.

Place—McLaurin Beach, Gull Lake. Take the train to Lacombe and then the camp stage to the assembly grounds. Get there Friday evening if possible.

Cost—The total cost, after your railway fare is paid, from Friday evening to Monday morning, including meals, board and transportation from Lacombe to camp grounds and return, will be five dollars.

Bring your very best self, bedding for sleeping accommodation, bathing suit, camera, Bible and note book, etc.

Your Society must be represented by at least one member and as many others as you care to send.

Oratorical Contest. This is one of the features of the program. Your Society is allowed to enter one contestant for each subject. Each speaker will be given not more than ten minutes.

The subjects are:

Bible Characters—Joseph, Moses, David, Paul.

Missionaries—Carey, Judson, Mary Slessor, Pioneer McDonald.

Religious Leaders—Robert Raikes, Frances Willard, Roger Williams.

B. Y. P. U. Work—The Group System; The Purpose of a B. Y. P. U.; My Ideal of a B. Y. P. U.

The Trophy. A silver cup known as "The Westbourne Trophy" and donated by the Westbourne B. Y. P. U., Calgary, is to be given the winning Society to be held for one year. This cup will be contested for each year, and go to the winning Society until the Convention discontinues the Oratorical Contest. The cup will then be returned to the original donors.

The Banner. A banner will be given to the Society scoring the highest marks on the three following counts:

1. Percentage of members present at this convention. Note: Owing to Lacombe and Clive Societies being so near Gull Lake, their standing in this point will be the average of all Societies represented.
2. The average attendance of your Society at its regular meetings from September to June inclusive on percentage basis. (This puts all Societies on equal footing.)
3. Points will be given for each regular meeting held through the entire year.

This Banner will be worth winning. It will be contested for each year.
