Popular Songs of the '60's

Alley Oop The Cathy's Clown The Everybody's Somebody's Fool Co Georgia On My Mind Ray Running Bear Joh Save The Last Dance For Me The Teen Angel Ma

The Everly Brothers Connie Francis Ray Charles Johnny Preston The Drifters Mark Dinning

The Hollywood Argyles

THE CALGARY HERALD Thurs, March 17, 1966

School Band Concer ces Auspicious Debut

enthusiasm of a ium Wednesday lie School Board SUPERB TRUMPET aking the juniors and two choirs e auditorium.

guson, program early concerts of h a special progarians in 1967. layed by the eight d from Dixieland hn and all were stylish, polished

e most powerful of the evening Issohn's Festival se, performed by Canada High and Orchestra. lirection of James ung vocalists and mbined their talle an exciting ren-

Williams Junior Band, made up of Grades IV to IX, than an average A medley of plan-s, under the baton received tumultuclassic.

variation from

band music, the King George R. W. Swaffield conducted the Junior High School Glee Club Ernest Manning group. sang thre numbers including the ence at the Jubi-ium Wednesday The 135 singers were directed by Mrs. Miriam Callaway.

aking the junior-the Ernest Manning High chool band concert School Band provided a Dixieent are well justi- land Jamboree with superb tonguing and fingering performed by the trumpet soloist. The number was played in true Dixiein the first such land style - rough but catchy.

Other bands and directors in cluded on the program were: William Aberhart High School Band, Wayne Magnuson; Intermediate School Orchestra, Jack Mirtle; Branton Junior High School Band, C. L. Pecksen; Viscount Bennett High School Dance Band, Roy Dow; and the Queen Elizabeth High School Band, K. H. Dow reference Public Library Newspaper microfiche for cut off portion

What a Blast!

Concert S/69 to aid starving

By EDYTHE HUMPHREY Albertan staff writer

Christmas is a time for giving, and no one knows it better than the students of Ernest Manning High School. For the third consecutive year, they are holding their annual Christmas concert in aid of The Albertan's Barley for Korea fund.

The time is 8 p.m. tonight The place is the school auditorium. The public is invited. and there will be a silver col-Calgarians will hear a two-hour candlelight concert, filled with the delightful music of Christmas, provided by the Christmas, provided by school band under the direction of L. C. Purnell, and by the boys', girls' mixed choruses under the direction of Darlene Seimens. Wayne Quirling will provide the organ accompani-The joint project of the school music department and the stulent union will have a far-reach ing effect because hungry little children in South Korea will receive life-giving barley bought with the proceeds of the silver collection contributed by Albertans.

So go to Ernest Manning's concert tonight and give cause the more you give,

REMEMBERING UN. A 45-voice mixed charus from Ernest Manning High School sang five songs Monday on the steps of City Hall, to commemorate the 26th anniversary of the founding of the United Nations. Miss Catherine Barclay, retired French teacher (centre), gave a short talk on the meaning and purpose of the world organization during the brief afternoon observance.

Songs of the 1970's

Hotel California, The Eagles Stairway To Heaven, Led Zeppelin
American Pie, Don McLean
Stayin' Alive, Bee Gees
Let It Be, The Beatles
Bridge Over Troubled Water, Simon & Garfunkel
Bohemian Rhapsody, Queen
My Sweet Lord, George Harrison
I Will Survive, Gloria Gaynor
The Hustle, Van McCoy

CONSERVATORY WINNERS. James Cullen and Jennifer Askewe won Royal Conservatory Silver Medals Sunday at the Calgary Conservatory of Music's 11th annual convocation. Culler won for both Grades II and IV euphonium and Askewe for Grade VI trumpet. The medals, presented at the Pleiades Theatre in the Centennial Planetarium, are for the highest marks in the province for their grade and instrument.

hursday, December 18, 1969

CONCERNED

Tonight's the night Ernest Manning High School is staging its annual Christmas concert in aid of The Albertan's Barley for Korea Fund. Two of the participants, Beth Law, left, and Judy Spady, secure the sign advertising their show at the front of the stage. In the background, other participants in the Christmas pageant take a rehearsal break.